Presidents Corner...

Hello All,

Our meeting on November 20th at Trey and Brandi's hangar, Fairview Airport for our annual Bert Mahon chili cook off for a lot of fun and good eating as usual. Thanks to Trey and Brandi for hosting. There were about 40 members and guests in attendance and everyone brought brunch items to compliment the chili. Also attending was Bert Mahon's son, Kelly Mahon who flew in his beautiful Monocoupe. Kelly invited our chapter out to Mount Pleasant Texas for a meeting sometime this year.

There were four entrants for the chili cook off and the winner was Brandi Hayden, second place went to Larry Reynolds who won a can of beans, third place went to Terry Doyle who won a jar of Tums. Thanks to the judges, Joel Meanor, Jack Fulford, and Jack Tyler for picking the winner.

We still need a few members to step up and volunteer for officer positions as secretary, treasurer, or activities coordinator. Please help the chapter carry on into the 60th year of "keeping the antiques flying".

Our Christmas meeting will be on December 11th at Christina's Mexican Restaurant in Flower Mount. The address is 6424 Cross Timbers Rd. Instead of toys this year we will take donations for the Denton County Santa Cops. Please bring gift cards or cash.

Stay safe and "keep em' flying
Terry □
